

When a relationship breaks down, taking the right legal advice can significantly reduce your emotional and financial hardship. As family law specialists we have detailed knowledge of all aspects of the law and will act promptly and with sensitivity to help you reach the most satisfactory solution.

 Why choose Russell & Russell Solicitors?

Russell & Russell are members of Resolution and have solicitors on the Law Society Family panel and Children panel. We also have a number of solicitors who are Resolution accredited specialists which means they are rigorously assessed, follow a strict code of conduct and are committed to encouraging a non-confrontational approach to resolving family issues.

 Legal Aid

Subject to your income and capital position you may be eligible for legal aid. At your initial interview we can quickly establish whether we can provide you with public funding.

24 hour Emergency Helpline

Family Law

Russell & Russell Solicitors have vast experience and knowledge of all areas of family law

Divorce & Separation

Whether you wish to apply for a divorce, have been served with divorce papers or need advice on dealing with the division of property or money following separation, we can help.

Children

Following family breakdown you will need to discuss where your children will live and resolve issues of financial support and contact. We also deal with adoption.

Domestic Abuse & Injunctions

Relationship breakdowns often lead to police or Court involvement. We provide immediate response when protection is required and effective advice in cases of domestic violence.

Civil Partnerships

We can advise on all aspects relating to civil partnerships and cohabitation whether you are about to enter into an agreement or wish to bring it to an end with a dissolution order.

Social Services

These can be traumatic and complicated issues and we have Solicitors who are trained in dealing with such cases.
